SALMANAZAR

Salmanazar, aka Cheese/Cheese Whiz, is a very kind, sensitive soul by Shackelford. Cheese exudes willingness and seeks direction. He will need a very kind hand that does not push him; he'll need a person who'll be a true partner! He will do anything for you but wants love first and foremost. Cheese loves a light hand and light seat but supportive leg as he is still learning balance. He will be suited for most low level disciplines, with an advanced intermediate working with a trainer. He will be started over poles and small jumps soon!

RISIBLE

Risible, aka Riz, is a stunning chestnut gelding who's waiting for his perfect person to love on! He has three beautiful gaits and a bright future. He would do well in the hunter ring or dressage ring with his huge ground-covering stride. This equine athlete is lovable and playful, and he's full of potential! Riz bowed a tendon on each front leg, but he raced with both with no issues. He is currently going walk/trot/canter and on pasture/paddock turnout. Riz will be best suited for an advanced rider to bring him along as he can be exuberant in his transitions and movement!
